WHAT'S HE SAYING?

- According to Winthrop, how must people in the new Puritan community live if they want to do well? How should they treat each other?
- If they succeed, what will they gain?
- If they're "on a hill", how will the rest of the world will see them?
- What happens if they fail? Why would Winthrop bring this up?
- What final message does he end with? What must the Puritans hold on to?

HOW TO BUILD “A CITY ON A HILL”

- Keep God, Biblical laws, and the Puritan church at the center of their lives
- Stick together as a community, treat each other as family
- Don't be selfish or get distracted by worldly things
- Build a strong foundation for the future
- If they succeed, God will be with them and the world will praise their success
- If they fail, they will be shamed and others will doubt their faith

LET'S ILLUSTRATE!

- Form a group of 3 – 4 people
- Get a piece of construction paper & some markers
- Draw a picture of what the Puritan “City on a Hill” might look like
 - What did Winthrop tell them to be?
 - What did we learn about their beliefs and values yesterday?
